

Counselors in our junior high schools trained to deal with the unique problems encountered by young teens. Junior High students are encouraged to begin a dialogue with the counselor assigned to his or her school.