To: O-B NYLO Concessions

Chairman Benson: We just had a question, because last year; and it concerns the liquor license too and the entertainment. Um, they came before us before, at the beginning of the year, but it's when the homeless people were in there, so obviously we weren't going to approve anything while that was going on, not that they were doing it anyway. There's no indication that that's going to happen again at this point?

Mr. Andrew Maki (NYLO): As long as I'm with that property it will never happen under my watch.

Chairman Benson: Okay.

Mr. Maki: I do believe some legislation has passed that would prevent them from doing that.

Chairman Benson: Okay. Just because we postponed it if it was going to come or whatever.

Mr. Maki: Never, never.

Vice Chairman Gilbert: One question, Charlie. Kerry, is that legislation that he is referencing, is that something that you're aware of, or could you check on it.

Assistant Solicitor Rafanelli: I don't know but I can check.

Chairman Benson: They're at Motel Six, so.

Mr. Maki: We have no intention of ever going back that way ever, ever again.

Chairman Benson: Okay.

Clerk Paolucci: Do you run any other establishments right now? Is this your first?

Mr. Maki: No. This isn't my first. I've done hotels over the last 13, 14 years, but only; I only manage one.

Chairman Benson: What were some of the hotels you managed?

Mr. Maki: Oh, I've done many.

Chairman Benson: Locally?

Mr. Maki: No, I travel.

Assistant Solicitor Rafanelli: I'll look into it.

Mr. Maki: That's what some of the long-term employees that have told me.

Chairman Benson: Okay.
