1.Stacia Huyler: unfortunate but not surprising that finance director jumped shipped weeks before budget hearings, but we all have great faith in Mayor Solomon and new city council president Steve Merolla, congrats Steve and our city department heads will come prepared to answer all financial questions asked by the city council and the public. Should not ratify union contracts, no annual raises, new contracts should be made. Savings must come from the city side of the budget, retirees should pay at least 25% toward healthcare, eliminate RX copy and cola. Will email full statement to entire council.

2.Matt Burke: 22 Cameron Ct, Ward 7. Grew up in City, attended BHHS. In January council approved by 8/1 40 Million in a bond proposal for upgrades for schools, to go to voters in November. Great city and school system, fix our buildings so our kids can focus on learning. Rocky Point upgrades approved by City council, DPW w/ help of DEM completed fishing pier, city park awarded a grant, allows for fishing piers.

3.Keith Fontenault – gives time to Nick Varas

4.Robert Johnson – Ward 2 gives time to Nick Varas

5.Timothy Bedard – Ward 9 Congrats to Council President for appointment – yields time to Nick Varas

6.Nick Varas – Ward 3, proud city resident for 25 years. Read letters of appreciation for the Warwick Fire Department - please take all this into account when considering making cuts to the Fire Department. We are not just a department, people of the community, represent taxpayers
