Paul R. DePetrillo of 73 Pleasant View Road is a resident of Ward 1 in Warwick. He is an Army veteran trained in radio equipment repair and Military Police. As a civilian, Paul continued his work in radio operations and joined the Providence Radio Association as a director. The PRA as it is called is the oldest amateur radio operation in the USA which serves the Ocean State with Emergency Communications.

Other community service includes: Sergeant-at-Arms for New England Amateur Radio as well as the Boxborough Amateur Radio Association and Mechanized Warfare Museum Events. A member of the Board of Directors for the Pawtuxet River Authority since 2015, Paul has directly engaged in community outreach and cleanup events of the river. Paul is also the Chairman of the Democrat Warwick City Committee for Ward 1.

As Director of New Projects for Providence Capitol, Paul was responsible for analyzing potential ventures to determine the Return On Investment (ROI). His primary focus was to determine viability of active businesses in the Technical Sector. His recommendations were followed by in-depth investigations by the firm's Vice-President/Partner.

Paul is married to LuAnne Martin DePetrillo. They have three children: Allyson, Nicholas and Caroline and five grandchildren.
