BOARD MEMBER BIOGRAPHY

Board or Commission: Warwick Commission on Historical Cemeteries

Name: Dawn Lewis

Address: 43B Eagle Run, Warwick, RI

E-mail: dawnblewis@gmail.com

Education: Asc. in Business Mgt; BA in Psychology; BS in Nursing; MBA in Management; and MBA-c in Human Resources Management; and a Ph.D in Public Safety, specializing in Emergency Management and an concentration in Public Health

Related Experience: Over the last 2 years, I have been working with a small team from my neighborhood to repair and restore area historical cemeteries.

- We have completed work on Rogers' Lot # 61 (and produced a information booklet). I filed for adoption of this cemetery for upkeep as well.
- We completed work on Remington-Arnold #60
- We are nearly complete with Thomas Stafford #53 (and produced a relationship chart)
- We have started work on John Clemmons Family #57

- We will soon begin work on William Jenison (an information booklet is in draft form now)
- I also occasionally assist my brother in upkeep of two cemeteries in Foster.

Employment: I am currently employed at the Hospital Association of Rhode Island as the Healthcare Emergency Management Director.

What is your interest in serving on this board? I have been voluntarily working on restoring local cemeteries for the last two years. I love the physical and research work, but I am also interested in the policy decisions and processes associated with and driving the work to ensure that history is preserved.
